

WORKSHOP | How a local housing trust can help your community

Join the Massachusetts Housing Partnership to learn how a municipal affordable housing trust can help your community maintain and increase the supply of affordable housing.

Tuesday, November 17th

9:30 a.m. to 1 p.m.

United Church of Christ Conference Center

One Badger Road, Framingham

This workshop will address how municipalities can create a municipal affordable housing trust, what the powers of a trust are, and examples of trust activities. Participants will also receive a new guidebook by MHP that explains strategies for setting up a trust and gaining approval from your local legislative body.

The workshop will also feature several experts with experience helping communities set up successful local housing trusts. Featured speakers will include:

Jennifer Goldson, JMGoldson Consulting

Attorney Kathleen O'Donnell, Kopelman & Paige

Beth Rust, Community Housing Specialist, Town of Sudbury

Valerie Foster, Dennis Housing Trust

Alice Savage, Easton Town Planner

Registration for this workshop is $25 and includes a continental breakfast and lunch.

To sign up for this event or if you have any questions, please contact MHP's Connie Kruger at ckruger@mhp.net or 617-330-9944 ext. 281.
